

CORNELL BRANCH OF THE TELLURIDE ASSOCIATION

TERMS OF SCHOLARSHIP – TARP.IV.A.1.(c)

All recipients of a scholarship at a Branch of Telluride Association are expected to maintain the highest standards of conduct and participation in their community and academic life. All community members who have received preferment will, at a minimum:

- i. be registered as a full-time student in good standing at the university, actively pursuing an undergraduate or graduate degree;
- ii. obey all applicable laws; adhere to the university's rules, regulations, and code of conduct; and comply with applicable Telluride Association rules and policies;
- iii. maintain a semesterly Grade Point Average of "B" (3.0) or better, and complete at least three-fourths of all credits attempted, in each academic term;
- iv. complete, in a timely fashion, the quota of TASS and/or TASP application reading as assigned by Telluride Association and the Branch Applications Officers. The number of application readings assigned will not exceed 80 per year;
- v. complete annual orientation, including training addressing sexual harassment, conflict resolution, and diversity inclusion. Failure on the part of an individual to complete the required training within the first two months of House residence will initiate a formal scholarship review by the Branch Committee. This requirement is waived for preferees who first join a Branch during a term in which annual training was not offered; however, such preferees must complete the training when it is next offered. The Non-Harassment Officer should, if possible, be present for both Branches' training in order to supplement material with specific TA policies and processes as outlined in the non-harassment policy;
- vi. fulfill a public speaking (PubSpeak) requirement by delivering at least one PubSpeak on a topic of their choosing per year; and
- vii. annually read the present Part (IV) concerning Residential Branches of the Telluride Association's Rules and Procedures and sign a document attesting to their understanding of this portion of TARP.

Failure to comply with these standards of conduct and participation, as determined by campus or law enforcement authorities if applicable, may result in disciplinary action up to and including the immediate revocation of the preferee's residential scholarship and discontinuation of any cash awards, at the sole discretion of Telluride Association. In addition, the Association reserves the right to immediately terminate their scholarship and residency privileges if they engage in or threaten acts that in the Association's sole opinion, may threaten the safety, health, or well-being of the Branch community or the personal safety or security of any Branchmember (including by acts of harassment).

This statement is a legal agreement between the preferee and Telluride Association, and is not a lease. It supersedes any prior contracts or understandings regarding their conditions of residence, whether oral or written. Any termination of their housing privileges for the above reasons will be considered a "for cause" termination.
